

BUSINESS AND CORPORATE

LM Tatum, PLLC serves as outside, general and litigation counsel to public and private entities of various sizes, for profit and non-profit entities. LM Tatum, PLLC provides legal guidance related to day-to-day operations, contracting, governance, intellectual property protection, personnel, policies and procedures, and other related business needs. The firm guides businesses through their initial formation and start-up legal needs and can provide assistance through corporate restructures. Our firm also assists our public entity clients with debt issuances, serving as Co-Bond Counsel and Underwriter's Counsel.

Our attorneys have each been working with clients in this arena for two decades. We have worked with public and private clients who are charged with certification, charitable services, construction, education, health and fitness, housing and urban development, human resources, medical equipment and supply, medical services, transportation, and technical services. We have provided legal services to entities such as B Comm Constructors LLC, Choice One Medical, Choice One Accessories, Filco Construction Group, Inc., Datum Rios LLC, OptiMed Consulting, San Antonio Development Agency, San Antonio Housing Authority, the San Antonio Independent School District and the San Antonio Water System. We have also provided guidance and advocacy to the San Antonio Housing Authority, San Antonio Development Agency and VIA Metropolitan.

We provide a broad spectrum of legal services in the area of business and corporate law in order to further ensure their business needs are met. The firm serves as counsel to entities such as AT&T, Confidential Search Solutions, Global Ag Investments, L.P., Life in the Heights Foundation, Matter of Time, the South Central Texas Regional Certification Agency, The Raul Jimenez Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Fund, Inc. and Submission Concepts, LLC. We have assisted with business formations, business restructures, executive management searches, board governance, policy development and implementation as well as reductions and increases in workforce. Our clients have received guidance addressing employment matters, contract disputes and negotiations intellectual property concerns, and procurement and purchasing concerns as well as applying for and obtaining trademarks. When our clients are faced with matters that may lead to or proceed to litigation, we continue to be legal resource and advocate for our clients.

Our attorneys have served as outside counsel, and litigation counsel as well as bond counsel to school districts such as the Edgewood Independent School District, Laredo Independent School District, San Antonio Independent School District, San Marcos Consolidated Independent School District, and United Independent School District addressing board governance, facilities maintenance, grievances, renewals and non-renewals, teacher discipline and terminations, bus driver training, and district matters related employment issues. We have worked with school districts administration in addressing the legal issues that arise during daily operation similarly to our work with other entities. We understand educational policy, goals and institutional priorities and are familiar with a spectrum of traditional and contemporary legal issues facing educational institutions. We also provide services as bond counsel to school districts and other public entities in their issuance of debt. We serve as part of a public finance team in order to enable school districts to better attend to district maintenance and growth needs.

The attorneys at LM Tatum, PLLC are experienced in helping our clients who range in size from sole proprietorships to small partnerships, large partnerships to corporations, profit and non-profit. We provide the legal guidance to get our start-up clients to get them started in business and continue to work with them as their businesses develop, grow and evolve. We also assist families and individuals with business and commercial transactions on an individualized and more private basis.

LM Tatum, PLLC's clients have a wide array of legal services at their disposal, all of which can help them with their day-to-day operations, special projects and more unique business and corporate needs. Additionally, our firm assists our public entity clients with debt issuances, serving as Co-Bond counsel and Underwriter's Counsel.